Schedule

Summer Schedule:

We understand that time off in the summer is important. While there are some events that we need all crew members to attend, there are some situations where individual crew members can cover an activity and rotate on the schedule with each other.

- All video crew members are required to attend camp days in the summer. These dates will be announced as soon as they are set (but are subject to change).
- We require a rotation of video crew members to ensure that at least 2 are present at each summer workout.

In-Season Schedule:

The official start to our season is August 10th. While practices early in the season could begin as early as 5:00am, usually practices begins around 2:35pm and end by 6:00pm (5:30pm as we get later into the season). We schedule our video crew to be at different events throughout the week (such as underclassmen games & varsity practices) but we expect all members of the video crew to be at all varsity games (usually held on Friday nights). Once set, we will share a digital calendar with as many details as we know.

Game Day Responsibilities

It is important that you are on time and where you need to be on game days (whether underclassmen games or varsity games). If an issue arises on a game day, discuss it with the other crew members and see if you can come up with a solution. If not, find the nearest coach and report the problem to him.

We need a minimum of 1 crew member to attend each sophomore and JV game. This schedule will be divided up during the preseason and you will be allowed to pick dates that work for you. However, once you have been assigned an underclassmen game, it is your responsibility to find a crew member to take your place if you cannot attend the game. The best way to be prepared is to work these situations out well in advance if possible.

Make sure you are staying focused before, during and after the game. You are to be on the field (out of the way) or in the press box while teams are warming up and preparations are being made. During the game, you need to stay in your assigned area and complete your job as instructed. You are not to take quarters off to sit in the stands with your friends or leave the facility for any reason. We do our best to put several crew members at each station and this allows you to trade shifts, but you are to remain with your partner while he/she is running the equipment. All crew members will be assigned a specific role for the season. It is very important to understand your game day responsibilities and to be aware how critical your job is even though it may seem small. Game day is what we all have been working so hard for and have been looking forward to. We want you to enjoy the experience as much as our players and coaches do.

Friday Night Expectations:

Home Games

- Be on campus by 5:45pm
- From 5:45pm – 6:50pm you should be either on the field (out of the way) or in the press box
- You need to report to your designated assignment no less than 10 minutes prior to kickoff.
- During halftime, you can visit the restrooms, concession stand or press box, however you must be back at your station prior to the 2nd half kickoff
- As we near the end of the game, you must continue to do your job regardless of the score or the situations. Whether it's a blowout or a close game, don't let your emotions get the best of you. We need EVERY PLAY filmed for numerous reasons.
- After the game is over, you need to make sure the equipment from your station is packed up and returned to the press box for storage. Once you have cleaned up your area, check to see if any other crew members need assistance. No one's night is over until every piece of equipment is put away, so helping others gets everyone out earlier.
- Once everything has been packed and returned to the press box, you are free to leave.

Away Games

- Be on campus by 4:00pm. You can choose to eat the team meal, or you can bring your own food. Buses normally leave between 4:15 & 4:45pm. You cannot drive to away games and CANNOT miss the bus.
- Once we arrive at the game site, help the coaches get any equipment to where it needs to be. Once everything has been unloaded, report to your station to see if the coaches setting up the video equipment need any assistance.

- Once setup is complete and everything is working properly, you should be either on the field (out of the way) or in the press box until 6:50pm.
- You need to report to your designated assignment no less than 10 minutes prior to kickoff.
- During halftime, you may visit the restroom, concession stand or press box, however you must be back at your station prior to the 2nd half kickoff
- As we near the end of the game, you must continue to do your job regardless of the score or the situations. Whether it's a blowout or a close game, don't let your emotions get the best of you. We need EVERY PLAY filmed for numerous reasons. Also, you will never get in trouble for filming TOO MUCH. Sometimes filming the reactions/emotions following a huge play are just as valuable as filming the play itself. If something big happens and the emotions are high, let the camera roll.
- After the game is over, you need to make sure the equipment from your station is packed up and returned to the truck. Once you have cleaned up your area, check to see if any other crew members need assistance. None of us can leave until we are sure everything has been cleaned up and packed away. Be willing to help anyone who is still working.
- You must return to school on the bus. The team always travels together.
- Once the buses arrive back at the school and everything has been unloaded and returned to the coaches' office/press box, you are free to leave.

What We Have Learned: Tips from Past Video Crew Members:

- Don't be afraid to ask questions.
- Always pack sunscreen, umbrella and warm clothes (later in the season).
- Bring something to drink and snack on at practice after school.
- If you are working on the field, don't let players intimidate you.
- Sometimes practices go long, it's 95°F out, coaches get mad, and people start yelling...don't take it personally. It all gets wiped off after practice and we move on.
- Being a part of the football program is way more rewarding at the end of the game than just being a part of the crowd.
